REPORTS.

The mail steamer Emeril left for Hongkong on 18th Sept. The Northgate from Sydney bound here, has been spoken outside by the Euclid and arrived yesterday.

Chen, at P. with a crew of 50 men who were picked up at sea by the British ship Formosa lying off Hongkong on the 26th. Sept. in a Chin cheong boat named Chow Ching having on board the time one of the crew of the Formosa and twenty balls of Opium with various other articles found by the Formosa. On the morning of the 3rd inst. they were overtaken by a "Typhoon" which carried away the mast and sails, and the vessel became water logged; about midday they were picked up by a British ship which brought them to Hongkong; the Formosa was then taken to the wharf and the cargo was removed by the master. They succeeded in saving the Opium and Silk.
